

Exhibiting at the Boomhuis

Boomhuis has a selection committee who meet once a month to review works submitted for possible exhibitions here.

You will be required to submit 3 to 6 original works (depending on format) for a final review. This must be your most RECENT work or PREFERABLY the work that you plan to exhibit at Boomhuis

Submit 10 to 12 Jpeg file images of the relevant works per e-mail. Each file name must consist of the following details: The title of the work, mediums, dimensions/size and the intended selling price (wall price). Keep in mind that Boomhuis takes 15 – 40% commission on all sales. – depending on your package choice.

Exhibitions must honor our Lord Jesus Christ.

Your submission must also include your updated CV with contact details (cellular number(s) & email address, as well as a short proposal concerning your proposed exhibition, i.e. a motivation for your exhibition focusing on theme (title), intention and aim. The proposal must not exceed 200 words.

Depending on when you submit your work, you can expect a reply immediately after the next scheduled selection meeting. (Between 1 – 4 weeks)

The selection committee's decision as to exhibitions is based on their majority vote.

No formal reasons will be given for their acceptance or rejection of your proposal for an exhibition at Boomhuis.

The decision of the selection committee will be final. No discussion or correspondence will be entered into. You should be aware that if your work is accepted you may have to wait for an extended period for a show at Boomhuis.

Should your work be accepted for exhibition, you will need to sign a contract with Boomhuis concerning your show.
